Production
Maple syrup is produced from the sap of wild maple trees. The trees are tapped in the spring and the bright, clear sap is collected and thickened in open kettles to approx. 1/40 of its original volume. The finished maple syrup is filled into bottles and packed.
Product Information
This strongly-flavored maple syrup will delight you thanks to its intense, caramel-like flavor.
The grade C maple syrup is produced late in the year. The dark color and the strong, aromatic sweetness of the syrup are characteristic for this quality level. Rapunzel maple syrup has the best quality and is graded according to the original Canadian quality standards. This syrup is all natural and contains no chemical additives.
Usage
use to refine pancakes, crêpes, pudding, muesli, yoghurt, fruit and pastries, can also be used to sweeten drinks
